

AKRAM KHAN COMPANY

Summer Intensive 2019

Terms & Conditions

- AKC & O28 cannot sponsor or assist with any visa.
- The AKC Summer Intensive fee should be paid by Friday 30 April 2019 via PayPal. Any transaction fee will be covered by the participant. If the AKC Summer Intensive fee has not been paid by the indicated date, the participant's place will be cancelled.
- AKC has the right to amend the course's schedule and the teaching team.
- In case of cancellation of the Summer Intensive by AKC, received payments will be refunded in full to all participants. In case of such cancellation, AKC cannot refund any invested travel expenses.
- In case of cancellation from the participant before 31 May 2019, the Participant will get a 80% refund of the Summer Intensive fee. In case of cancellation from the participant after 31 May 2019, refund will only be payable at the discretion of AKC and is not guaranteed.
- AKC will not be held responsible for any loss of or damage to participants' belongings or any types of injuries to participants that occur whilst attending the course. Participants will inform AKC about any past and/or present injuries.
- The data collected in relation to the Project will be used and shared only between AKC and O28 for the sole purpose of the project. Should participants be interested in receiving further communication from AKC & O28, they will have to sign in directly on the websites.
- Participants agree to be photographed and/or recorded on video for archival and publicity purposes of the Company. Participants cannot claim any rights of property regarding these materials. Participants are not permitted to take video recordings and/or photographs of repertoire pieces, dancers or teachers during the course.